

Centre Métropolis Atlantique
Atlantic Metropolis Centre

Citizenship and Immigration Canada      Citoyenneté et
Immigration Canada

Present A Free Public Seminar

On the Move: Out-Migration and In-Migration in Rural and Small Town Nova Scotia

8:30 am - 1:00 pm

Friday, March 11th, 2011

Council Chambers, Bloomfield Centre, St. Francis Xavier University
Antigonish, Nova Scotia

- 9:00: Welcome: Richard Nemesvari, Dean of Arts,
St. Francis Xavier University
- 9:15: David Flint, Department of Sociology and Social Anthropology, Dalhousie University
Why some immigrants come to rural Nova Scotia and why some of them stay there.
- 10:00: John Phyne and Lynda Harling-Stalker,
Department of Sociology, St. Francis Xavier University
'Good to be Alberta Bound': The Impact of Out-Migration on the Strait Region of Nova Scotia, 2001-2006.
- 10:40: Refreshment Break
- 11:00: A Panel on Out-Migration and In-Migration
Invited guests will speak on these issues.

Simultaneous translation into French will be provided.