

Mini-Lecture Series for Adults 55+

Content: Of interest to adults 55+ but lectures open to general public
 Admission: Free
 Time: 10:00 AM to Noon; nutrition break provided

Registration is not required

(But always appreciated for planning purposes!)

Contact Cindy at StFX Continuing & Distance Education
 902-867-3319 or cmaceach@stfx.ca

Spring 2018 SCHEDULE
TUESDAYS 10:00 - Noon	PRESENTER	TOPIC: Earth, Air, Fire, Water	LOCATION
April 10	David Morgan and Jay Ross	Sun, Fossil Fuels, and Fire: An overview of how energy is harnessed and consumed provincially and locally.	Antigonish People's Place Library – Community Room
April 17	Jamie Powel	The Voyager Spacecraft: Forty years into space . . . Where is it? What have we learned?
April 24	Dr. Burton MacDonald	The Way My Mind has Changed: From Text to Material What archaeologists have uncovered in Jordan about its territory and people of the first millennium BC
May 1	Dr. Peter Clancy	Freshwater governance: Two stories of politics

Sponsored by StFX Continuing & Distance Education & People's Place Library

Special thank you to the Bergengren Branch of the East Coast Credit Union

For additional information contact:

StFX Continuing & Distance Education Department 867-3319 or cmaceach@stfx.ca

Pictou-Antigonish
Regional Library

